Allegheny-Limestone wins World War II History Challenge

Eldred, PA- For the second consecutive year, Allegheny-Limestone captured the Eldred World War II Museum's High School History Challenge. Portville Central School came in second place and an additional Allegheny-Limestone team finished third. Fourteen teams from six area high schools competed in the three round event, which featured World War II-based multiple choice questions and a scavenger hunt for items in the museum. Competing schools were Allegheny-Limestone, Archbishop Walsh, Coudersport, Portville, Salamanca and Sheffield. The top three teams were: Allegheny-Limestone #1 (Ricky Trietly, Mark Fischer, Ryan Lamberson, Aaron Blumenthal, Steph Mackowski), Portville (Bryan Weitzel, Charles Stover, Brett Stayer, Steven Struchen) and Allegheny-Limestone #2 (Casey Ensell, Mike Meyers, Daniel Winger, Tyler Mechone, Erin Nye)

Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it.
