

MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND ★ 2008

Saturday, May 24, 2:00 p.m.

The OSS in Greece: a Lecture by Joseph Bradley.

Mr. Bradley, a graduate of St. Bonaventure University and current military history student at Norwich University will be speaking of the OSS, the Office of Strategic Services, in Greece during World War II. The OSS was the forerunner to today's CIA. Some of Mr. Bradley's research is already incorporated into the Sabotage and Spy War display at the Museum and is leading toward future publication.

Sunday, May 25, 2:00 p.m.

Guest Speaker Earl McElfresh, Military Cartographer and author. with Special Guest Harold Wesmiller

Mr. McElfresh will be speaking about his contributions to the 2006 edition of the World War II book, Company Commander – a military history classic designated as the Military Book Club's Selection of the Month in 2006. Mr. Harold Wesmiller, a native of Port Allegany, PA, was the radio operator for Company G, 23rd Infantry, and is mentioned throughout the book.

Monday, May 26, Memorial Day - Free Admission

11:00 a.m. – Eldred American Legion Parade

2:00 p.m. – Eldred WWII Museum Service of Remembrance

The Service of Remembrance honors the memory and sacrifice of those who have served our country in the Military. The guest speaker for the Service is the Rev. Randall Headley – a retired Marine and the son of a WWII Seabee. The public is invited to submit the names of any individual who has served in the United States military and has now passed away. All of the names that are submitted will be read as a memorial.

Eldred WWII Museum

201 Main Street

Eldred, PA 16731

814-225-2220

www.eldredwwiimuseum.net